

DOMAINE FABRICE LAROCLETTE

AOC POUILLY-FUISSÉ “LES ROBÉES”

WINEMAKER

Fabrice Larocheete

WINE REGION

Burgundy

STORY

Domaine Larocheete has been passed from father to son for generations. They are located in southern Burgundy on the slopes of Chaintré. Fabrice took over the vineyard in 1988 and began bottling under his name in 1995. The terroir is maintained with respect to local tradition and methods, all while utilizing modern technical developments of our day. Pouilly-Fuissé is the only Burgundy appellation outside of the Cote d'Or to be represented in the Hospices de Beaune yearly auction. 40% of this cuvee comes from the terroir (the “Climat”) of ‘Les Robées’.

VINEYARD

The vineyard is planted on the mother stone of limestone, composed of 30cm of arable soil with large amounts of gravel at the surface. The vines are fully exposed to the south on a slope, and Les Robées is known to be the first plot to be harvested each season.

VINIFICATION

The fruit is hand picked and meticulously destemmed. Winemaking occurs with the use of pneumatic press, and both alcoholic and malolactic fermentation in temperature control stainless steel vats. Ageing continues sur lies in stainless steel.

TASTING NOTES

This wine presents itself with a pale golden color and a complex nose of citrus and pit fruits. The palate is rich and delicatated with flavors of yellow peach, with an elegant finish and a touch of minerality.

FOOD PAIRING

Serve this wine with crab, scallops and asparagus or fish terrine.

QUICK FACTS

VARIETY

100% Chardonnay

PRODUCTION

2.5 acres

AGING

Stainless steel

OTHER WINES FROM THIS ESTATE

Pouilly- Fuissé «Les Robées»

Bourgogne Blanc

