

VIGNOBLES DUCOURT AOP BORDEAUX, LARROQUE

WINEMAKER

Jérémy Ducourt

WINE REGION

Entre-Deux-Mers

STORY

In 1858 the Ducourt family created its first estate with a few hectares of vines in Ladaux, a small village southwest of Bordeaux. Today the Ducourts own one of the largest independent vineyards in the region with 440 hectares of vines spread over 13 châteaux in the Entre-Deux-Mers and Saint-Emilion appellations. These estates produce 2.5 million bottles a year. In 1979, Marie-Christine daughter of Henry Ducourt buys this prestigious property. The vineyard was completely replanted in only 3 years and the Château from the XIV century renovated. Four of the Château's are represented by Planet Wine.

VINEYARD

Located on a hillside near the entrance of Coimères in south-east Bordeaux, Château Larroque has an exceptional terroir composed of gravelly clay.

VINIFICATION

The fruit is cold macerated, and then fermented in stainless steel thermoregulated tanks. The wine is then aged for 12 months in Oak Barrel.

TASTING NOTES

The wine is of a dark ruby color, with purple hues. Aromas of vanilla, coffee and black currants. Flavors of red berries with a rich, balanced finish of fine tannin.

FOOD PAIRING

Enjoy with a roasted rack of lamb, or most grilled red meats.
